SCOUTING REPORT:

Addison is projectable pitching prospect with a promising game in the circle. A junior (2025) from Chesterfield, MO, she attends Lafayette HS. Her game in the circle is based on a sound fundamental approach geared around a promising, repeatable operation. Her "go to" pitch is a deceptive change-up that she works to both sides of the plate with confidence. Her command and control of her repertoire shows maturity and polish. Certain projectability as a pitcher. Addison can also swing the bat. She is smooth and direct to contact, showing quiet hands and a consistent path to firm contact. Addison shows promise as a two-way player. As she gains further experience and physical strength, she is certain to draw attention from next level coaches. Bright future ahead!
